

Alabama Applicant Processing Service (AAPS)

Fingerprinting Overview

STEP 1 - REGISTRATION

All Athens State University College of Education students and Arts & Sciences Licensure and Certification students that are degree seeking are required to be fingerprinted and ABI/FBI cleared for the Alabama State Department of Education at the beginning of the first semester of enrollment.

Fingerprint clearance is required to successfully submit an online field experience application for courses requiring field experience.

If you hold an Alabama substitute license or a letter of suitability for employment in a school system, please email Mrs. Sharron Woods with this information. (We do not accept DHR letters of suitability for students placed in K-12 school settings.)
